

Purdue University Calumet Interview Stream New Users Guide

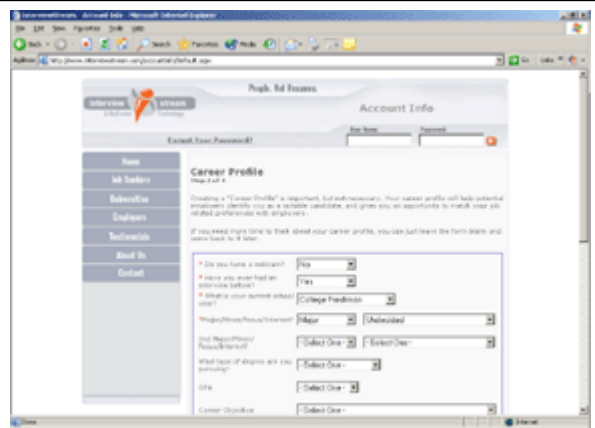

1. Use this guide if you have never before used Interview Stream. If you have a Interview Stream account, please use the other guide available at:
<http://www.calumet.purdue.edu/ccld/career/rezfuzion.html>
2. Make sure to click “Join Here” for New Users to access the Interview Stream system through the login screen on the Career Services website.

1. Complete the required fields making sure that the “School” field identifies you with Purdue University – Calumet.
2. Click the Next button to continue with the registration

1. Complete the required fields to build your basic demographic profile.
2. Click the Next button to continue with registration and begin scheduling your interview date and time.

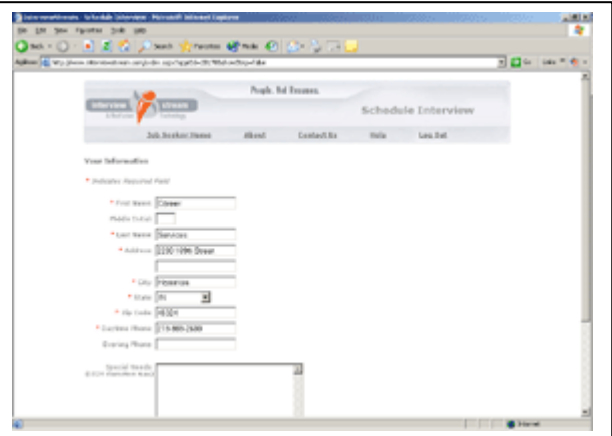

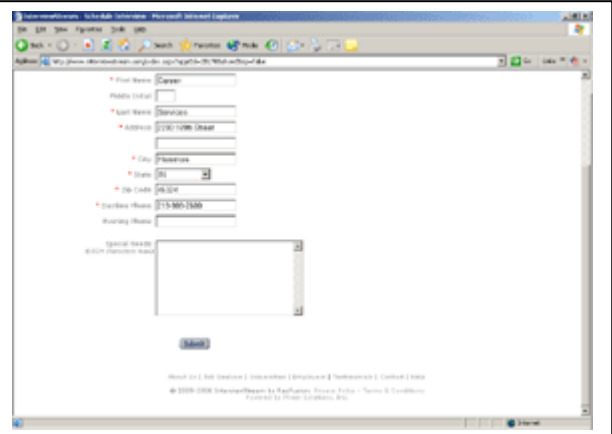

1. You may select up to eight specific questions for your interview or let the Interview Stream system randomly select questions for you.
2. In this example, the option to let Interview Stream select the questions has been selected.
3. Click submit to go to the next screen.

1. Confirm your contact information on this “Your Information” screen.
2. Make Sure you scroll down this page and look for the “submit” button to continue the scheduling process.

1. After you have scrolled down to the bottom of the “Your Information” screen, click the submit button to continue the interview scheduling process.

1. The “Confirmation Page” will appear where you may review your interview date, time, and personal information.
2. Your interview is not scheduled until you click the submit button at the bottom of this page.
3. Click submit to confirm your interview date and time.

1. The “Thank You” page will appear confirming your interview.
2. Please click the “Print” button to save this page.
3. You should receive a copy of this information in your e-mail account also confirming your registration.
4. Next step is to visit Career Services in the Student Union and Library room 349 for your interview.

